

The Equality and Diversity Exchange

Just £1,000 for 12 months membership
Fees frozen for 2018!

We invite you to join HQN's flourishing Equality and Diversity Exchange, led by three-times British Diversity Award winner Chris Root, a national guru and highly respected figure in this field.

Members of the Exchange are able to take advantage of all of the following benefits:

- Face-to-face discussions/problem solving by Skype, email or phone with Chris Root
- Reduced training and critical friend costs (25% reduction on costs for all equality and diversity training and face-to-face meetings with Chris Root)
- An annual Exchange event with update briefings and cascade PowerPoint presentation for experts to take back and use for briefing key managers, boards and staff
- Regional events throughout the year to exchange good practice, with 'ask the expert' sessions with a range of protected characteristic specialists
- An annual face-to-face board training session/presentation
- Regular updates of case law, legal and topic-specific briefings, supporting policy and practice review, written by leading writers and policy experts
- Priority access to our lead training team, including John Dyer, Tahira Hussain and Chris Root.

To discuss the benefits of the Exchange further, please either contact Exchange Lead Associate Chris Root on chris.root@edhqnetwork.co.uk or 07980 289635, or email training@hqnetwork.co.uk or call 01904 557150.
