

Programme

Compliance Plus: Housing associations and health and safety

Thursday 28 March 2019 | Manchester

There is a real requirement now for a 'compliance-plus' approach to provide more robust assurances to boards and to the Regulator; Governance is key and there is scrutiny on boards to 'challenge' what they are being told to ensure they have a valid assurance.

HQN's newly-developed series of 'Compliance-plus' events provide some insight in to what you can do to ensure that what you have in place is robust.

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 10:00 Registration and refreshments   | 14:00 The importance of data integrityColin Ward, HQN Associate  |
| 10:30 Chair's welcome and introductionAlistair McIntosh, HQN Chief Executive                             | 14:45 Refreshment break   |
| 10:45 Landlord health and safetyAngela Holden, Regulator for Social Housing                              | 15:00 As a board member – What should 'Assurance' look like?Alistair McIntosh, Chief Executive, HQN  |
| 11:30 The challenge of maintaining compliance through a mergerSteve Pettitt, Director of Safety, L&amp;Q | 15:30 The third line of defence: Audits – internal or external? What should you be asking for?Vicki Cutler, Lead Associate and Independent H&amp;S Consultant, HQN |
| 12:00 Lunch   | 16:00 Final thoughts and questionsAlistair McIntosh, HQN Chief Executive   |
| 13:15 After Grenfell... what's really changed?Steve Pettitt, Director of Safety, L&amp;Q                 | 16:15 Close   |