

10 Reasons

to join The Housing Quality Network Cymru

1 Event places

Members get five free places at Housing Quality Network events every year - including our Annual Conference.

Non-members pay £1,205 for the same number of places.

2 Business Transformation Group

Free for members – the opportunity to attend change workshops, find out about new technology and take part in one-off experience days to places like Google.

3 Exclusive workshops

Free regional events and seminars on hot topics – from stress testing business plans to working with the regulator – hear from sector experts, experienced practitioners and top performers from Wales and beyond. Free webinars covering the hot topics.

4 Advertise your vacancies

Free job advertising on our vacancies page, homepage and weekly newsletter. This presents a saving of at least £500 per advert.

5 Consultancy

- Up to 10% discount on all consultancy support services
- £500 discount on any accreditation services.

6 Chief Executive on tap

Alistair McIntosh, our Chief Executive, will speak at your special event for free (subject to his diary commitments).

7 More for your money

- 10% discount on all public and inhouse training
- 10% discount on all e-learning modules.

8 Essential resources

Last year we released 64 briefings, toolkits, or research papers.

Non-members have to pay £1,920 for those same resources.

9 Support from the network

Do you need help or assurance solving a work problem or minimising risk? We're here to help – we'll put out a call to members, forward replies and summarise good practice.

10 Keeping you informed

Weekly members' update with exclusive briefings, news from the sector across the UK, chief executive's blog, members Q&A's and job vacancies
