

Programme

What the Social Housing Regulation Bill means for Local Authorities Monday 22 August 2022

Hear direct from the Regulator of Social Housing on the biggest shake-up to housing regulation for years and what local authorities should be doing now.

A return to proactive consumer regulation, a robust inspection regime and new tenant satisfaction measures are just some of the major changes on the horizon for local authorities as part of the bill recently laid before Parliament.

14:00 Chair's welcome and introduction
Emma Lindley and Roger Jarman, HQN associates

14:05 What the Social Housing (Regulation) Bill means for local authorities
Kate Dodsworth, Director of Consumer Regulation, Regulator of Social Housing

14:30 Regulator Q&A

15:00 Break

15:10 How are you preparing for the new regulation regime – Q&A
Emma Lindley and Roger Jarman, HQN associates

16:00 The HQN inspection framework – seeing ourselves as inspectors see us
Alistair McIntosh, Chief Executive, HQN

16:30 Closing remarks
Emma Lindley and Roger Jarman, HQN associates

hqn

EVENTS